

JOB OPENING IN SANTIAGO

Veracruz Group is a start-up educational program company that organizes and executes short-term study visits to Chile by groups of MBA, Law, Environmental, Social and Economic Development students and young professionals.

We're in search of an enthusiastic American or Canadian for a position as Project Manager.

The position includes the following responsibilities:

- Investigating, contacting and managing relationships with universities and professional associations in the United States, Canada and Europe
- Participating in the design of short-term student and young professional programs in Chile
- Overseeing the organization and execution of student and young professional program visits
- Hiring and managing program staff
- Editing and updating the company's website

Musts:

- Native English
- Intermediate to Advanced Spanish
- Bachelor's degree
- Proficient in MS Office applications
- Minimum of 4 years professional experience

Please contact Eric Wiideman at ew@veracruzgroup.com